The Alex Pinter Quartet is a new young, fresh and modern sounding Jazz Combo, consisting of the routiniers Raphael Preuschl (b) and Peter Natterer (ss/ts), and prospective Berklee students Michael Kihn (dr) and bandleader and mastermind Alex Pinter (g). On the quest of its sound, the quartet moves through different genres – contemporary jazz, which doesn't refuse to incorporate modern styles like drum `n` bass, but always keeping in mind where jazz has its roots. In this modern context, "traditional" improvisation as well as soundscaping with a wide variety of effects both have enough room to emerge. The sound on the new album "PAY 8 GET 10" is also a mixture between the knowledge of jazz tradition and the consciousness of the 21st century.

Two well-known musicians of the austrian jazz scene, Herbert Pirker (dr) and Martin Eberle (trp), perform a really worth-listening guest appearance on track 7 of the album.
