

... a great journey from soft acoustic tunes
to electric high voltage energy ...

LISTENING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED !

"JUNGLE CITY"

Acuna/Hoff/Mathisen

Alex Acuna, drums, percussion
Jan Gunnar Hoff, piano, keyboards
Per Mathisen, electric & acoustic bass

This trio that you are about to listen to came to life at a Latin music festival in Tromsø, Northern Norway, March 2007. Legendary drummer and percussion player Alex Acuña was our special guest of honor with a Norwegian ensemble. After playing only a few bars together as a trio on the first rehearsal, Alex was jumping off his drum stool screaming out:

„Wow guys, fantastic, we have to play much more together“.

What we experienced right there is every musicians dream, to meet somebody who fully share the same approach and love for playing music, and you feel that this person has always been your friend.

The music on this recording stretches from soft acoustic tunes to electric high voltage energy, rockin' jazz. Why? Because that's who we are. The love and joy for playing any kind of style or genre gives us the freedom we seek.

Hope you will enjoy listening to this CD as much as we did making it, it was a thrill.

Yours sincerely,
Jan Gunnar Hoff & Per Mathisen
